✓ Episode 14 ✓

"One Day to Go", the fourteenth episode of "The Timber Queen", with Ruth Roland, shows the heroine deprived of her inheritance unless, within twenty-four hours, she can release her captured father and invalidate a document obtained by the conspirators by intimidation. The critical scene occurs in a sawmill. There is a savage fight in which Don Mackay, Ruth's lover, is disabled and she herself hurled unconscious onto a moving carriage travelling toward a gang of buzzing saws.
